G4S Company History

G4S originally began operations in 1901 in Denmark with operations in the U.S. dating back to 1954 when George R. Wackenhut founded The Wackenhut Corporation in Miami, Florida.

After 48 years of unprecedented growth and becoming one of the largest security companies in America, The Wackenhut Corporation merged with Group 4 Falck A/S based in Denmark in 2002, beginning a transformation to becoming the global security leader. In 2004, Group 4 Securicor was formed from the merger between Securicor plc and Group 4 Falck A/S's security business. G4S is now listed on the London Stock Exchange (stock symbol: GFS) with a secondary listing in Copenhagen. Sales from continuing operations for 2009 were approximately $10.9 billion.

Today G4S is the world's leading provider of security solutions with operations in more than 110 countries and employs 595,000 security professionals, ranking G4S as the second largest employer in the world. Within the U.S., G4S operates over 110 local offices with approximately 40,000 employees, servicing over 3,500 customers nationwide with a license to conduct business in all 50 States.
